BASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - The details of goods to be sold is published in a network by a middle man. A weighted mean price higher than standard price is decided by middle man and then informed to seller. Then, the bid offered by consumers is acquired for predetermined time. The consumer who offers highest bid exceeding standard price acquires purchase right of goods. DETAILED DESCRIPTION - The predetermined percentage of the weighted mean price is collected as commission by the middle man.

USE - For communication network e.g. internet.

ADVANTAGE - Enables selling of multiple goods to consumers offering highest bid, thereby increasing profit of seller. Enables consumer to purchase goods at lowest possible price. DESCRIPTION OF DRAWING(S) - The figure shows the block diagram of goods selling system in communication network.
